

PROFESSIONAL COPY

If An Apple Tempted Adam

What A Peach Could Do To Me!

Words and Music by ALEX GERBER, HENRY LEWIS
& ABNER SILVER

Brightly Not too fast

I've made a stud - y of A - dam and Eve, — I know why she made — A - dam I don't be - lieve — Moth - er Eve rolled her eyes, — Or tried an - y vamp - ing at fall. — His - tor - y tells — me and I must be - lieve — That all. — I will ad - mit — that she must have been wise — To Eve was the cause of it all. It's been the same stor-tempt him and then make him fall. Some peo - ple will tell

- y and ev - er since then Wom - en have al - - ways been you it's all a mis - take A - dam was charmed by an tempt-ing the men. Poor man has al - ways been the fool old rat - tle - snake. I think that stor - y must be so

And I'm no ex - cep - tion to the rule.
 For A - dam was "rat - tled," we all know.

REFRAIN

It was an ap - ple that tempt-ed A - dam in E - den's Gar - den one fine day. Eve kept on plead - ing, She kept mis - lead - ing,

Fill poor old A - dam went a - - stray That bite was trag - ic It worked like mag - ic For it made him fall, you see. Now if an Ap - ple tempt - ed A - dam, Oh! what a

1. Peach could do to me! 2. It was an mel.