DOO DAH BLUES

By FRED ROSE
and EDDIE WHITE

What will be- come of me What will be- come of me Some- thing it's plain to see Is You've heard my tale of woe And now I know you know Just why I'm wor- ried so Yes wrong with me yes wrong with me I'm al- ways sigh- ing I'm al- ways cry- ing wor- ried so and flur- ried so I loved her on- ly That's why I'm lone- ly

Sad am I Here's the reas- on why Just on- ly yes- ter- day
And I miss most of all her kiss May- be if she could see

My sweet- ie went a- way I thought 'twas all in play But when I heard her say Just what she did to me Ser- ry per- haps she'd be And set my poor heart free

"Doo Dah Good- bye to you Doo Dah that means that I'm thru" Oh! Lord- y
But I sup- pose she's thru There's noth- ing else I can do

CHORUS

Oh! those Doo Dah Blues I want to lose Those Doo Dah Blues

For all night long till ear- ly dawn They seem to come — and nev- er leave me Lord- y but they grieve me Do they, they do, I'll say — they do Oh! I know those Doo Dah Blues Will sure re- fuse Poor me to lose

I got 'em now And oh! some- how — I know that if you had 'em you'd - a Long to lose the Doo Dah Blues. Oh Lordy Blues.
