The piano introduction consists of two staves. The right hand starts with a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp (F#), and a common time signature. It begins with a series of chords and moving lines, marked mf. The left hand starts with a bass clef and a common time signature, providing a harmonic accompaniment. The piece concludes with a rit. (ritardando) marking.

The first vocal line is written on a single staff with a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp, and a common time signature. It begins with a dim. (diminuendo) marking. The piano accompaniment for this section is shown on two staves below the vocal line, starting with a p (piano) dynamic. The piano part features a steady accompaniment with some melodic movement in the right hand.
