Mys - tic Isles, Where all na - ture Thru the night, In the white moon smiles, It is there, where, some one is wait - ing the light, As she sings, wings seems to be fly - ing a whole day long; O'er and o'er, cross the sea; And it seems,

On the gold en shore, By the sea, she In a mist of dreams, That he heard her sings ev - 'ry ev - ning her sweet plain - tive song:

sing - ing and answered her sweet mel - o - dy:

Refrain

Night - in - gale, I am so lone - ly, Night - in - gale

I love him on - ly; Could he but know, that I long for him so, He would have come long a - go;

Long since our vows we have plight - ed, Springtime will see us u - ni - ted; Night-in-gale do, bring him back here with you,

Back to Ha - wa - ii and me. me.
