p Pals fellows and gals out in a Lone Star town Gangs on their mus-tangs wait at the Can - yon side

Dance full of ro-mance after the sun goes down Dressed up in their best hop-in' to kiss the bride

There dances a pair fairest of fair is she Yells si-lence the bells af-ter the pair ap - pears

He proud as can be Croons one of his love tunes, Cheers ring in their ears Birds sing to these love words.

Chorus
Rose of the Ri-o Grande Rose of the Bor-der land One word then hand in hand We'll leave the preacher's side room Hap-py lit-tle bride and bride-groom Ov - er those hills of sand

I've got your love nest planned You claim it I'll name it Rose of Ri - o Grande.
