

The Country Girl.

SONG.

(Dolly and Female Chorus.)

Book and Lyrics by STANISLAUS STANGE.

Music by JULIAN EDWARDS

Moderato. DOLLY.

Voice: I've lived my life 'mid

Piano. f pp

cows and hens. I've dear-ly loved

Two lit-tle wrens. The folks I've met such aw-ful frights!

ff pp f

I'll ne'er for-get the coun-try sights? But now I'm here, I can't go out, Though I should love to trot a-bout.

§ Chorus.

Allegretto.

Ah! I'd real-ly like if it were fit, to run a-round the

DOLLY.
town a bit. I'd real-ly like if it were fit, to run a-round the

SOP. and ALTO.
She'd real-ly like if it were fit to run a-round the town a bit, I'd real-ly like if it were fit To run a-round the town a bit.

town a bit, She'd real-ly like if it were fit To run a-round the town a bit.

