1. Down a lit-tle coun-try path-way part-ly
2. We were stroll-ing thro' the gar-den, on a hid a - mong the trees, Stands an i - vy cov - ered cot - tage all a - balm - y night in June, All nat - ure seemed in sym - pa - thy with lone; There each eve I make a jour - ney and I'm me; My soul it was en - rap - tured when she al - ways sure to please      The charm - ing lit - tle maid - en within that prom - ised to be mine,      While on the green be - neath the old oak home, _____ Her style is of the neat - est, Her tree, _____ My heart's so full of sun - shine, She's smile the ver - y sweet - est, And no pur - er soul e'er lived up - on our in my thoughts at all times, And from morn 'till eve for her I'll al - ways soil;

toil;      Ev' - ry star that beams a - bove her, Ev' - ry Just 'till spring-time we shall tar - ry Then with bird on tree-top loves her, She's my own sweet darling Dai-sy, Dai-sy Doyle. — joy complete we'll mar-ry, She's my own sweet darling Dai-sy, Dai-sy Doyle. —

REFRAIN.

Dai-sy, Dai-sy, Dai - sy Doyle, Sweet-er flow-ers nev - er grow up - on our soil, She's the i - dol of my heart, — And from her I'll nev - er part, For I love no one but Dai-sy, Dai - sy Doyle. —
