REFRAIN.

F - R - I - E - N - D - S, - Where will you find them when you're in dis-tress,

The first system of the refrain features a vocal line in a treble clef with a key signature of two flats and a common time signature. The lyrics are "F - R - I - E - N - D - S, - Where will you find them when you're in dis-tress,". Below the vocal line is a piano accompaniment consisting of a right-hand part in a treble clef and a left-hand part in a bass clef. The piano part includes a dynamic marking of p-f (piano-forte) at the beginning.

That's no joke For when your broke you'll find out that you're a three cent smoke.

The second system continues the refrain with the lyrics "That's no joke For when your broke you'll find out that you're a three cent smoke." The musical notation follows the same format as the first system, with a vocal line and piano accompaniment.

Use your yes well I should guess, Just for what you're worth, - So bear in mind, When you're

The third system of the refrain has the lyrics "Use your yes well I should guess, Just for what you're worth, - So bear in mind, When you're". The musical notation continues with a vocal line and piano accompaniment.

broke you'll find, That you hav- n't got a friend on earth. earth.

The fourth and final system of the refrain concludes with the lyrics "broke you'll find, That you hav- n't got a friend on earth. earth." The musical notation includes a first ending (marked "1") and a second ending (marked "2") for the vocal line, and corresponding piano accompaniment.
