

PROFESSIONAL COPY

Any Old Way You Cook Chicken

Words by IRVING JONES.

(Is good enough for me)

Music by
SID PERRIN.

Some Lover

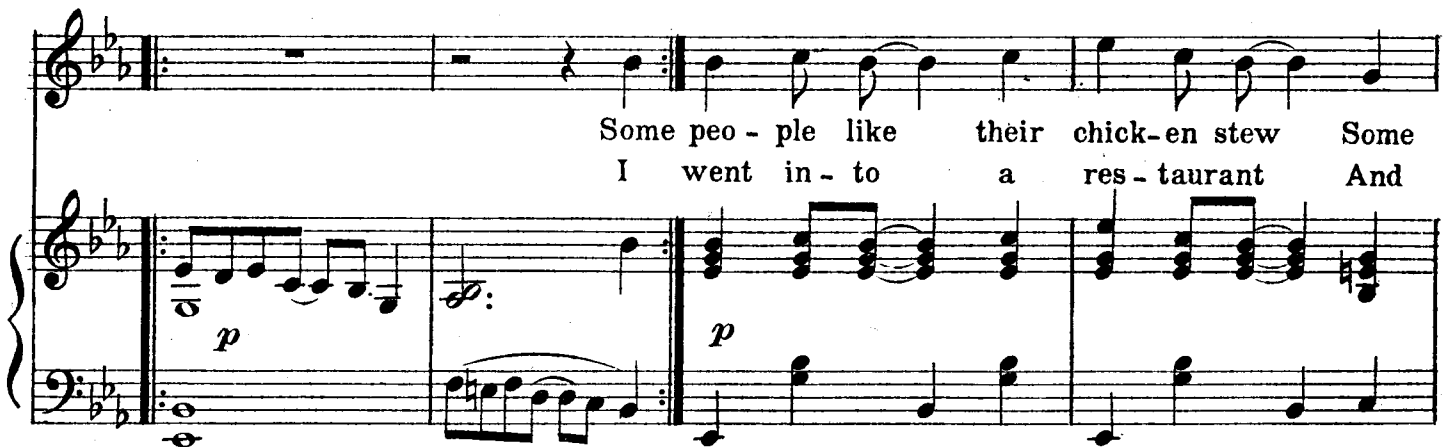

Moderato

Handwritten: Some Lover

f ff ff

Introduction for piano, Moderato tempo. The music is in B-flat major and 4/4 time. It features a series of chords and melodic lines in both hands, with dynamics ranging from f to ff.

Some peo - ple like their chick-en stew Some I went in - to a res - taurant And

p p

Vocal line and piano accompaniment. The piano part features a steady accompaniment with dynamics p.

peo - ple like it fried If some folks don't get or - dered chick - en hash, The wait - er brought me

Vocal line and piano accompaniment. The piano part features a steady accompaniment.

chick-en baked They are not sat - is - fied Then some folks when they chick-en pie And chick-en suc - a - tash He al - so brought me

Vocal line and piano accompaniment. The piano part features a steady accompaniment.

eat a hen It must be fric - as - see Be - lieve me true, I'll chicken croquets And chick-en dump - lins stew, He al - so brought some tell to you All taste the same to me.

chick-en ta - malies And chick-en chop sue - y too.

CHORUS.

An - y old way you cook chicken, Is good e - nough for

p-f fz

me I aint a bit par - tic - u - lar 'bout the kind of style you see. I eat the chick - en from head to feet The feathers is the on - ly thing that I can't eat So an - y old way you cook chicken is good e - nough for me. me.