Kate Hayes was the sweet - est girl of all the girls in Kate had sweet - hearts by the score, and each one thought he'd town, She had a smile for ev - ry one, As wed, This charm - ing lit - tle vil - lage girl, And she'd walk up and down the vil - lage street, each one of them said as sure as fate,

— She looked so neat, — At night when she'd be — I'll mar - ry Kate, — As they pro - posed to go - ing home, The boys and girls would stand, And ro - guish Kate, She said "No" ve - ry sad, For' smile at charm - ing lit - tle Kate, While she would wave her I have prom - ised I would wed, A jol - ly fat old hand, She looked so gay, — They all would say. — lad, Then they a - woke, — In chor - us spoke. — Chorus.

Good night Kate Hayes Good night Kate Hayes, You have such win-ning man-ners, But you have some fun - ny ways, Good night Kate Hayes, Good night Kate Hayes, Oh, you're al - right you're out of sight, Good night Kate Hayes good night.
