Home Will Be Home Wheresoever We Be.

Ballad.

by George Mullett.

Piano. p

I sat — by the fire-side mus - ing, ov - er scenes that have passed a - The vis - ion has passed but the mem - 'ry will — live and for - ev - er re - way, When a vis - ion o'er me came steal - ing and I main, Bring - ing thought of those days a - round me that in lived in a far off day, There were fa - ces a - round that fan - cy I live o'er a - gain, We re - mem - ber words of love once loved me, And I joined in a hap - py spok - en, Look on fa - ces where love al - ways song, In a home with my loved ones shone, Think of hearts that were cheer - ful now far o'er the sea as we stood an un-brok - en — throng. — brok - en — gaze on eyes filled with love dim'd and gone. —

Chorus.

Home will be home — where ev - er you roam

Fresh in your mem - 'ry re - mains Home Sweet Home Bring - ing sweet vis - ions of days gone by, Bring - ing you dreams that will nev - er die,

Oft you look back with a fond re - gret, Think of the home you can nev - er for - get, Fate may bring chang - es to you and to me, But home will be home where - so - ev - er we be.
