Miss E - liz - a then did say: "Oh, my swell - est col - ored gent in town, — Went one night his lov - in' hon - ey man, don't go! — List - en to me, babe to see, — Miss E - liz - a Jack - son Brown. —
do, I pray, — Don't you treat your ba - by so; —

Good-ness me!— when he got there, Found an-oth - er par-ty
I have loved_ you all my life,— Want to be your ev-er in his chair.— Then Jas - per Jud - - son

lov - in' wife?— Then Jas - per Jud - - son

John - son Lee — . Said to Miss E - liz - a Jack-son Brown: —
John - son Lee — Said: "It's no use, ba - by, I must go." —

CHORUS

I'm go-in', go-in', go-in', go - in', good - bye, I'm gone; — There's no use moan-in', moan-in, moan - in', Fare - well, so long. — Just give me back my phon-ey ring,

I don't want an-oth-er doggone thing, For I'm go-in', go-in',

go - in', go - in', good - bye, I'm — gone. — I'm gone. —
