You've seen in show,
Kiss me good day,
Dressed up in class - y
And write when I'm a - clothes,
way,
You can bet I'm one Ju - li -
When I write him I nev - er et,
send,
Who cares for none of those,
Some kiss - es on the end,
Since I found my Cu - tie boy,
He wont ev - en take that chance,
Im just liv - ing right on joy.
So he takes them in ad - vance.

CHORUS
What do you know a-bout that Cut-ie boy of mine p – f
(What do you know? What do you know? What do you know?)
What do you know a-bout a boy who's so di - vine (What a mind, What a mind, What a mas-ter mind)
Calls a-round a lit-tle af-ter sev-en keeps me right in heaven till e-lev-en, Hangs a 'round till it strikes one, two, three, four, What do you think he does when dad-dy in-ter - feres, He on-ly cheers and puts (In-ter-feres, in-ter-feres, in-ter-feres) ear muffs up-on my dad-dys ears, Poor dad-dy five A. M. he (on his ears, on his ears) runs a-round the block To find a rock to kill the coo-koo clock, Now what do you know a-bout that 1

2
Cut-ie boy of mine.
