In the Heart of the City that has no Heart.

Words by THOS. S. ALLEN.

Music by JOSEPH M. DALY.

Moderato.

She wanted to roam so she left the old home, The old people's hearts were sore.

A year passes by, there's a tear in her eye, And sorrow is on her brow.

She longed for the sights and the bright city lights Where hundreds had gone before.

She went to the heart of the city She could not go back home now.

Her dear mother said when they

Quartette

Tenor I

In the heart of the city that has no heart That's where they meet and that's where they part, The current of vice had proved too strong So the poor little girlie just drifted along. Nobody cared if she lived or died, Nobody cared if she laughed or cried, She's just a lost sister and nobody's missed her, She's there in the city where there's no pity. In the city that has no heart, city that has no heart.
