The toil of the day-time was o - - ver, Two We both look a - way to the fu - - ture, With lov - ers a man and a maid, In tak - ing a two fond hearts beat - ing as one, We'll live in the lov - er's long jour - ney, The path thro'the wild-flowers strayed, land of con - tent - ment, As hap - py as we have be - gun, — She spoke of the calm of the eve - ning, ——— And — When trav' - ling life's jour - ney to - geth - er, ——— In what she would do for his sake, ——— He told of his hopes and the peace and true love we will live, ——— Now will you love hon - or and fu - - ture, Then asked her this pro-mise to make. ——— cher - - ish, I ask you your pro-mise to give. ———

Chorus.

Valse tempo.

Now prom - ise me, you'll ev - er be, The Queen of Home Sweet Home, ——— 'Mid joy or care, thro' foul or fair, We'll meet things as they come, ——— If dark the day love lights the way, No mat - ter where we roam, ——— Now will you reign, and long re - main, The Queen of Home Sweet Home. ———
