song and spark - ling Rhine that's wine, Once a Mar - ried late with - out a fight at night, You don't have to man he knew said Bill I don't think that you walk the floor with a kid who'll yell and roar

Go to bed or home one night in nine to dine Have Oh I wish I was n't tied so tight I might Like you no dom - i - cile, Then Bill said with a smile.

 you be gay and free, Bill said I don't a - gree.

CHORUS

Id go home if I had a wife and ba-by Id go p-f

home and go like the dick-ens may-be If there was some-one there to give me a squeeze In- stead of the land-lord yell- ing "Give me those keys and beat it" Id go home to just get some home-made cook-ing

If I had those things I'd nev-er roam. _____ But the tail - or and man - Tell me who would go home - — who makes all of my shoes — The man from the bar — where I — To a hall-room so bare — A moth eat - en rug — an old pur-chase my booze — And there's doz-ens more wait - ing there with I. O. U's — ta - ble and chair — And there's six-teen po - lice - men all waiting up there —

That's why I nev-er go home. _____ home. _____
