

I Lost My Heart In Honolulu

Lyric by
WILL D. COBB

Music by
GUS EDWARDS

Moderato

West-ward Ho! I'm rest-less there to go — Where the warm Ha-wai-ian bree-zes blow — Where dark eyes glow oh! beau-ti-ful Is - land,
West-ward Ho! — In quest of her I go — While the u - ka - le - le waits its tune — I'll hon-ey-moon with my Kil-u - a - u, Wai - ki - ki! — Your beach be - seech - es me, — There is a rea-son I — con-fess, Come on, give — a guess, Some girl? Yes!

Home-ward Ho! — By way of old Fris - co, — The u - ka - le - le laid a - side, Ba - by now her pride, Hail my bride!

a tempo

CHORUS

rit

I lost my heart — in Hon-o - lu - lu, — Where the moon-beams kiss the o - cean — There's the shrine of my de - vo - tion, — One won-drous night, — one won-drous maid - en, — Down on the glist-ning cor - al strand I just held her hand, un - der - stand, Oh! mid-night scene — of trop - ic splen - dor, Un-dreamed of dreams, — love glan-ces ten - der, — Had I a thou-sand hearts to lose, I'd lose them all — in Hon-o - lu - lu. I lost my lu.

Copyright MCMXVI
Copyright assigned MCMXVI to Shapiro,
International Copyright Secured

Review Co. Inc. New York
Co. Inc. 224 West 47th Street. New York
All Rights Reserved.