If you come from East or West You think your land's the best Im just like the Folks who stop to hear me out When I be - gin to shout Nev - er have a rest Put me to the test My land is a Par - a - dise Im al - ways think - ing doubt What Im talk - in' 'bout Makes no diff - rence who I meet No mat - ter where I of The world is ring - ing, sing - ing, of this land I love roam, Im al - ways yell - ing, tell - ing 'bout my home sweet home

CHO (Croony)

p-f

Im talk - in' 'bout my Dix - ie, my Dix - ie land I love your Swanee River, My Dix - ie, my Dixie and Thethingsyoucan deliver, All those songs a - bout my Mam - my, way down south in Al - a - ba - my, car - ry me back, to the folks I un - der stand, The ang - els that found Dix - ie, bound Dix - ie, round To make it more com - ple - ter, I love your sky love your ground what's sweeter, When the good Lord named you There were mill - ions who PATTER claimed you, My Dix - ie, Im talk - in' 'bout Dix - ie, my Dix - ie - land land fz

There is nothin' that sur - pas - ses Your de - li - cious bread and 'las - ses You have taught the world what class - is with your chick - en a - la - Mar - y - land There's no fin - er than Ca - ro - lin - a corn cakes fry - in' in the pan, The an - gels that found Dix - ie, Bound Dix - ie, round to make it more com - ple - ter, I love your sky love your ground what's sweeter from the Gulf to Vir - gin - ia I love ev' - ry - thing in ya, my Dix - ie, Im talk - in' 'bout Dix - ie, my Dix - ie land
