

Listen In "ON THE RADIOPHONE"

Lyric by RAY W. LOCKARD

Music by EDWARD RILEY
HERMAN A. HUMMEL

INTRO.

VOICE

In the air _____ ev - 'ry - where, _____ Hear the en - ter - tain - ment
Now the man, _____ in the moon _____ Can have mus - ic all his

fly. _____ An - y - one can hear the mus - ic _____ play - ing, _____ In the eve - ning
own. _____ And the pret - ty girl up _____ in the _____ stars dance _____ to the wire - less

sky. _____ Hear a song _____ speed a long, _____ You can hear an op - era phone. _____ For old Mars _____ thru the air _____ Tells them all just when to grand. _____ And if you will lis - ten you may hear that fam - ous Sau - sa band. _____

go. _____ And if you will lis - ten you may hear it _____ on the Ra - di - o. _____

CHORUS

Oh just lis - ten in _____ on the Ra - di - o - phone.

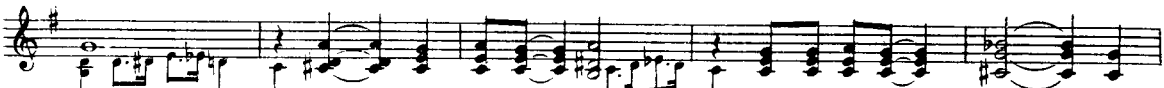

Oh just lis - ten in _____ hear the sax - o - phone moan. _____ There's mus - ic in the air, _____ It comes from ev - 'ry - where. _____ If you'll just lis - ten in you will get your share. _____ Oh just lis - ten in _____ you must watch your step. _____ Oh just lis - ten in _____ you'll get lots of pep. Old

Doc - tor jazz has come to stay, _____ He will drive the blues a - way.

If you'll just lis - ten in, _____ On the Ra - di - o - phone. _____ phone.

Copyright MCMXXII by Riley & Co.
Published by Riley & Co. Des Moines, Iowa.

Printed in the U.S.A.