cem - ber, The last night of the year,..... O so well do I re - mem - ber, 'Twas a sto - ries, Grandpa told that New Year's eve,..... Full of won - ders, full of glo - ries, Which we win - ters O'er my head have gone and past,..... Since that eve - ning in De - cem - ber, Yet its time to us most dear, We were seat - ed by the fire - side, All was cheer - ful, all was chil - dren did be - lieve, But our hearts were filled with sad - ness, As he said with voice so mem - 'ries ev - er last, With his loved ones Grand - pa's rest - ing, Still I hear his words so bright, When Grand-pa said with droop - ing head The old year dies to-night.

 light, We too some day must pass a - way Like the old year in the night.
 light, We too some day must pass a - way Like the old year in the night.

CHORUS.

SOP. Then let the old year go, You can nev - er stop his flight, But ALTO.
TENOR. Then let the old year go, You can nev - er stop his flight,..... But
BASS.
PIANO. mf cresc.

think some day you'll pass a - way, Like the old year in the night.
 in the night.
 think some day you'll pass a - way, Like the old year in the night, in the night.

The Old Year Dies To-night.
