

They All Spoke Well Of You.

3

An Echo of the Old Songs.

Words and Music by AL TRAHERN.

The musical score is written in G major (one sharp) and 2/4 time. It consists of a piano introduction, a vocal melody with two verses, and a piano accompaniment. The piano introduction features a rhythmic pattern of eighth and sixteenth notes in the right hand and a steady eighth-note bass line in the left hand. The vocal melody is simple and melodic, with lyrics that tell a story of a woman at a concert. The piano accompaniment provides harmonic support with chords and a consistent bass line.

1. 'Twas mid-night in a con - cert hall, the dan - cers glid - ed by, The
2. The mus - ic played, the dance went on, she smiled through bit - ter tears, She col - lege boys had just re - turned that day; ——— The mer - ry crowd that gathered there, joined tried to be as jol - ly as the rest; ——— In fan - cy she could pic - ture then, her in the col - lege cry, To wel - come all the boys who'd been a - way. ——— One home in by - gone years, She knew she loved the folks at home the best. ——— Her Copyright 1903 by Al Trahern, 41 W. 28th St. New York.

Entered according to the Act of Parliament of Canada in the year 1903 by Whaley, Royce & Co. at the Department of Agriculture.

jol - ly chap who'd just re - turned, danced with a girl he knew, And col - lege friend then said, "Good - night, they're play - ing Home Sweet Home;" She'd said, "I saw your folks just yes - ter - day;" She nev - er heard it sound so sweet be - fore; She stag - gered back, her face turned pale, then said, "please tell me do, Just said, "I'm go - ing home to stay, no more I'll ev - er roam, So what the folks at home had to say?"

 tell me what the folks said once more?"

REFRAIN.

"They all spoke well of you, Their love re-mains the same; They're wait - ing there to wel - come you, Al - though you were to blame. They have laid a - way each tok - en, They're keep - ing them for you; There's a group at home heart brok - en, They all spoke well of you?"