

Can't You See I Love You?

Lyric by
SEYMOUR BROWN.

Music by
NAT. D. AYER.

Moderato.

Piano.

f sfz

I've trav-eled here and there, I've-searched most ev'-ry-where, To I'm real-ly ver-y shy, And that's the rea-son why The mp mf

Till ready.

find a girl whom I could real-ly love, And gift of speech is not at my com-mand, I'm late-ly I have seen My heart's de-sire, my queen. She's as new too at the game, And of course my on-ly aim Is to fair as an - y an - gel from a - bove, But just how I'll pro - pose to her is make it plain, so she can un - der - stand; Now if this lit - tle girl I mean would more than I can think; It has caused me sleep - less nights and much dis - give me half a chance, To try and prove my love is pure and may. At last I've hit up - on a plan to true. Now tell me do you think that she would ask her for her heart and hand, And this is what I think I'll have to say:

en - ter - tain a thought of me? I might as well be frank, the girl is you!

REFRAIN.

"Can't you see I love you? See the love-light in my eyes!

mf-ff

Can't you un-der-stand dear? You're the girl I i-dol-ize.

Life is sad and lone-ly, It is ver-y drear-y too, — But I could be so ver-y hap-py, dear, if I had you? you?

ff sfz D.S.