

DRIFTING

HIGH VOICE.

By

W. R. WILLIAMS.

Author of { "WHY MUST WE PART."
"JUST FOR A DAY." etc.

Andante.

Sweet-heart, to night I am lone - - ly Shad-ow's of night o'er me Wand'-ring a - gain through the gloam - - ing With you I live o'er the steal _____ Lone - ly for you and you on - ly past. _____ Love-land's fair - fields we are roam - ing

You are my heart's one i - deal _____ In dreams, I hear love still Our hopes were too bright to last. _____ No thoughts or care of the

largamente mf
call - ing, I press you a - gain to my heart _____ When I a - wake tears are mor - row, We knew that true love nev - er dies _____ I might have known there'd be

largamente mf

poco - - a - - - poco - - - rall
fall - - ing, And I know we are drift - ing a - part. _____
sor - - row, From the look of dis - dain in your eyes. _____

poco - - a - - - poco - - - rall

REFRAIN.
p a tempo

Drift - ing, drift - ing from you sweet-heart I an

p a tempo

Drift - ing drift - ing a - way from love's gold - en shore.

L. H.

ped *

Drift - ing from hap - py dream days of yore Drift - ing drift - ing

L.H.

ped *

hope - less of life's dark clouds lift - ing; From you through the years and the Broadly.

Broadly.

val - ley of tears. I am drift - - - ing.

f rall - - e - - dim.

f rall - - e - - dim.