

HELEN.

Words by SIDNEY R. ELLIS.

Music by AL. H. WILSON.

Moderato.

When all is still And night-birds trill My dreams in fan-cy
 When breaks the morn Her dain - ty form Then greets me ev - 'ry -

soar Bright stars on high In moon - lit sky Then where For_ carved in vale O'er_ hill and dale Is frames the face of one whom I a - dore And Hel - en of my dreams be - yond com - pare No

International Copyright Secured.

Copyright MCMVIII by Ellis and Wilson.

Entered according to the Act of Parliament of Canada at the Department of Agriculture.

to me there Her spir - it fair Comes from that blue do - more I'll pine For now she's mine And will for life re - main And hov - ers near To give me cheer As main I have her vow To heark - en now And

I re - veal in song this sweet re - frain: My dar - ling yield a blush - ing yes to this re - frain:

CHORUS.

Hel - en My heart is tell - ing A sto - ry that I dear - ly wish to coo Hel - en There is no quell - ing A

R.H. L.H. L.H. L.H. L.H.

pas - sion that is real - ly fond and true Hel - en I'm ev - er

L.H. L.H. L.H. L.H.

spell - ing A lit - tle word L - O - V - E Ah! do Hel - en come make your

L.H. L.H. L.H.

dwell - ing In my heart for Hel - en Hel - en I love you rit.