Warning: The copyright law of the United States governs the making of copies or other reproduction of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for purposes other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a reproduction for purposes in excess of "Fair use", that user may be liable for copyright infringement.

Special Collections reserves the right to refuse a copying order, if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve a violation of copyright law.
